Présentation de l'éditeur

A deeply religious man, Mel White believes that there is no exaggeration in saying that the true goals of today's fundamentalists are to break down the walls that separate the state from the church, allowing the church and their values to replace democracy with theocratic rules. He is also a gay man who hit the headlines when he came out. He has gained a unique understanding of the fundamentalist agenda - because since the fall of Communism, homosexuality, along with abortion, has become the far right's prime target.
